

ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBER

Laquita Cyprian

Chief Banking Officer

Laquita Cyprian, a native Houstonian and veteran banking leader, has significant insights into the economy and the opportunities of companies in the region. At Agility Bank (in organization), she is responsible for customer relationship growth, as well as executing digital strategies that meet the needs of growing businesses in deposit, lending, and treasury management.

Her career, which spans over 20 years, has focused on providing banking solutions to small and mid-sized companies which are focused on sustainable growth. At leading Houston banks, she has managed teams that have been recognized for relationship building through strategic service and product solutions, as well as helping bring efficiencies to companies' operations.

Laquita attended the University of Houston where she studied Business Administration. She has served on a number of boards including board chair of CSTEM, an organization supporting children in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics