ELIGIBILITY

*Students who have applied to the university***

Students who do not intend to attend Texas Southern University must not take the ACT-R testing on campus. Registration must take place through the National ACT Registration site and will be subject to pre-scheduled testing dates and times.

TEST DATES

- The ACT-R testing dates are scheduled through the Testing Center by appointment.
- Scheduling availability will vary per examinee, date, time and availability.
- The 2017-2018 ACT Residual Testing year runs through September 30, 2019.
- Dates will be updated each month on the testing website for scheduling purposes.

SCORES

- Scores from residual testing are only valid at Texas Southern University. The scores are non-transferable to other institutions and/or agencies.
- Scores from the ACT-Residual testing are reported to the Texas Southern University Academic College or School of the major listed on your admissions file.
- Additional score reports are not generated and/or reported to any other institution or agency.

RESTRICTIONS

- A minimum of 60 days must elapse before another ACT-R test may be taken.
- Scores achieved before the minimum elapsed time will be cancelled without refund.
- ACT restricts the number of times a student may take the ACT to 12 times total.
- ACT-R testing does count toward that maximum.
- Scores that exceed the maximum will be canceled without refund.

Time Duration: The ACT-R is a standardized exam that is timed for 3 ½ hours.

Test Results: Scores will be sent to the Office of Admissions within 5 days of your test date. Copies of scores are not provided to examinees.

Rescheduled Exams: Please contact the Testing Center to reschedule your test date and time.

Retesting: Examinees must wait 60 days before an exam retake.
