PREFACE

The information presented here was collected and organized by the Office of Institutional Effectiveness. This office serves as the clearinghouse for official University statistics to promote consistency in reporting and the provision of timely and accurate information. Accordingly, all information provided was collected from official University files, the primary data source being the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board CBM reports. These reports are submitted by the University for funding and monitoring purposes and therefore represent official institutional records used for reporting to federal, state, and local agencies.

To access additional University data facts, please visit the following address: http://www.tsu.edu/About/Administration/institutional_effectiveness/Enrollment_Data/default.php. TEXAS SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY
A Brief Profile

Texas Southern University was established on March 3, 1947, by the fiftieth Texas Legislature. Originally designated Texas State University for Negroes, it became the first state-supported institution in the City of Houston. In 1951 the institution was renamed Texas Southern University (TSU). Although the University was initially established to educate African Americans, it has become one of the most ethnically diverse institutions in the state. Additionally, its focus and mission has significantly evolved since those early years from a comprehensive generalist focus to a focus on the unique needs of an urban clientele. As a result, in 1973 the Texas Legislature recognized TSU's involvement in programs and services particularly suited to the needs of urban residents by designating the institution "a special purpose institution for urban programming."

Thus, TSU has undergone significant change throughout the years. Nevertheless, it has remained a special attraction for African Americans. The institution now distinguishes itself as one of the leading producers of African American scholars that obtain collegiate various higher education degrees. The University offers a vast array of baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral programs. The University also offers two professional degrees (the Doctor of Pharmacy and the Doctor of Jurisprudence). In keeping with the growing job market demands and student diversity, TSU also offers online degree programs, namely the eMBA & eMPA. More information regarding the types of degrees offered may be found at the following website <http://em.tsu.edu/registrar/catalog.php>

TSU's campus includes two professional schools; a music recital hall, acclaimed for its acoustics; a performance theater; the University Art Museum; a health and physical education complex, a student center, recreation center; and dormitories. Additionally, the University owns a FM radio station that serves as a teaching and learning laboratory and as an educational link to the community at large.

Texas Southern University

Mission

Texas Southern University is a comprehensive metropolitan university. Building on its legacy as a historically black institution, the university provides academic and research programs that address critical urban issues and prepare an ethnically diverse student population to become a force for positive change in a global society.

In order to achieve this mission, Texas Southern University provides:

- quality instruction in a culture of innovative teaching and learning
- basic and applied research and scholarship that is responsive to community issues
- opportunities for public service that benefit the community and the world.

Vision

Texas Southern University will become one of the nation's pre-eminent comprehensive metropolitan universities. We will be recognized by the excellence of our programs, the quality of our instruction, our innovative research, and our desire to be a contributing partner to our community, state, nation, and world.
