

TEXAS SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

Tiger Family,

As part of our efforts to keep our campus safe during Phase 2 of our Return to TigerLand, the following buildings will offer temperature screenings beginning at 8 a.m. daily this week:

Barbara Jordan-Mickey Leland School of Public Affairs Building
Jesse H. Jones School of Business Building
Thurgood Marshall School of Law
Roderick R. Paige Education Building
Spurgeon E. Gray Hall College of Pharmacy
L.H.O. Spearman Technology Building
Martin Luther King Humanities Center
Thornton M. Fairchild Hall
Science Building
Everett Owens Bell Hall
Rollings-Stewart Music Center
Samuel Milton Nabrit Science Building
Health & Physical Education Arena
Ernest S. Sterling Student Life Center
Mack H. Hannah Hall
General Services Building
Library Learning Center
Earl Carl Institute
C.S. Lane Home Economics Center

As a reminder, facial coverings and temperature checks are required to enter campus buildings. Upon completion of temperature checks by TSU DPS, wristbands will be issued and will be used for access to other campus buildings throughout the day. Additional screenings will not be needed on same day with visible wristband.

Please continue to monitor campus media and the LiveSafe mobile app for the latest information. Remember to show that Tigers Care by following all social distancing guidelines while we have a limited number of students, faculty and staff on campus.

Go Tigers!
