Former Enron and AIG Executives to speak at TSU

A former executive with Enron Corporation Ms. Sherron Watkins and former Vice President of AIG, Gordon Massie will speak at Texas Southern University as a part of the university’s Executive Lecture Series. The two executives will speak from the titled theme of the event which is, “Making Tough Choices: The Dilemma of Moral and Ethical Decision Making.” The event is scheduled for 5:30pm to 8 pm, Thursday, Feb. 25, the Jesse H. Jones School of Business Bldg., Room 113.

Texas Southern University was founded in 1926 and became a state institution in 1947. Texas Southern possesses an impressive array of undergraduate and graduate programs, a diverse faculty, more than 80 student organizations, and an alumni network comprised of educators, entrepreneurs, public servants, lawyers, pilots, artists, and more, many of whom are change agents on the local, national and international stage. Nestled upon a sprawling 150-acre campus, Texas Southern has served as a cornerstone for developing the greatest potential in leaders from various socioeconomic, cultural, and racial backgrounds. Texas Southern is located in the heart of the city, giving its students and faculty easy access to the Museum District, neighboring educational institutions, the Texas Medical Center, downtown Houston, two major airports and all of the city’s major freeways. More than 9,487 students, along with nearly 1,500 faculty and staff comprise the University’s community making it one of the nation’s largest Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU’s).
