Robert James Terry Library Exhibition Room -- 1st Floor.

Topic for Discussion included The American Economy in Decline or Collapse. Additional areas to explored during the discussion were: While gas prices have just dipped, and the ripple effects of the last three months of high prices are yet to be felt. Will our grocery bills make us eat less? Home foreclosures and Bank closings - What’s next? We’ve heard about the Great Depression. Are we about to actually experience one? Should we be stocking up on necessities? Who controls our economic future? What will be the psychological effects of all of this?
