Application for Annual Department Major Scholarship

Introduction:

The purpose of the scholarship is to promote study and research among Spanish majors toward a profound understanding of the Hispanic culture and language proficiency. With the funding students are expected to gain learning material, research resources, completion of a research project, or opportunities of experience or practicum of cultural/language immersion. A plan of using the scholarship in a separate sheet must be attached to the application form.

Qualifications: Major or Double Major in Spanish

Priority: 1. GPA (3.0 or higher) and 2. seniority: Beginning Senior-> Junior -> Sophomore -> Freshmen.

The Due Date of the application is the 2nd Friday of May.

The scholarship may be issued in the forms of research assistantship, textbook scholarship, or study abroad funding, with an amount ranging from $200-$600 depending on funding availability.

For further information, please contact the department main office or the chair person.
Texas Southern University                     Department of Foreign Languages

Application for Annual Department Major Scholarship *

Student Name _______________________                  T number _______________________

Home Address ________________________________

Phone ___________________________       E-mail ___________________________

Last course taken in Spanish______________________________

GPA__________

Double Major (circle one):  Yes / No

Note: Attach a separate sheet to indicate your plan with the scholarship.

Names of References

1. Name_____________________________ Title & Affiliation ______________________

              Phone_____________________________

              E-mail __________________________

2. Name_____________________________ Title & Affiliation ______________________

              Phone_____________________________

              E-mail __________________________

Applicant Signature_______________________     Date _______________________

Office Use Only:

Date Received ______________________   Approved by Department Chair: ______________

Note_________________________________________________________________________

*Awards of the Scholarship will be announced before the 1st week of June.