How can the Student Advisement Center help?

The Student Advisement Center has up-to-date information on all academic programs in the College of Education and can assist candidates in choosing a major area of study. In addition, the Student Advisement Center staff acts as a liaison between the Counseling Center, Career Development and all other academic departments on campus. The Student Advisement Center is available to:

- Assist you in selecting and registering for courses that meet both general education requirements
- Provide accurate and up-to-date information about programs and services as well as policies and procedures in the college and at the university
- Assist students in assessing academic strengths and interests that will lead to the admission to Educator Program and degree completion
- Refer you to other academic departments and university services
