DATE: August 13, 2014

TO: Thomas F. Freeman Honors College Students

FROM: Elizabeth Brown-Guillory, Ph.D.
Associate Provost/AVP for Academic and Faculty Affairs
Interim Dean, Thomas F. Freeman Honors College

SUBJECT: Scheduling of FS102 for new Honors Students and Advising Expectations for all Honors Students

By now you will have received a letter welcoming all Honors students to campus. This correspondence serves to inform you that all newly admitted students to the Thomas F. Freeman Honors College are required to meet with their advisors monthly, starting in August, preferably before classes begin or shortly thereafter. All Honors student are required to take FS102 (Introduction to Honors) in either their first or second semester in the Honors College, preferable in their first semester.

Please contact the Honors College immediately at 713-313-6725 to secure an in-person session with an advisor. It is especially critical that you schedule the FS102 class that introduces you to the Honors College, your intellectual and social hub of campus life for the next several years.

This letter also serves to encourage all Honors students—including sophomore, juniors, and seniors—that monthly advising sessions are required, and we are excited about working with you to thrive in the Thomas F. Freeman Honors College at Texas Southern University.

Honors staff will begin calling you to encourage you to schedule a meeting with your advisor. We have every expectation that you will leap at the opportunity to accept the services that the college is eager to provide for you, our stellar Honors scholars.

Again, welcome to the Fall 2014 semester!