

Thurgood Marshall College Fund (TMCF) Fleischer HBCU Scholars Program

FAQs

Frequently asked questions:

What activities will students be involved in during the program? Students will attend seminars, develop business plans, visit local companies, talk with business professionals, interact with college students, and hear presentations from various professionals on campus (admissions, financial aid, scholarships, HBCUs, etc).

Who may apply? The TMCF Fleischer HBCU Scholars Program is open to rising high school seniors who are from underrepresented and low to moderate-income backgrounds, and/or potential first-generation college students. Applicants must meet at least one category, but not necessarily all. Consideration for the program will be given to all applicants.

What are the program dates? For 2021, the program dates are June 14 – June 25th.

What is the cost of the program? The cost of the program is FREE to all participants. The program will cover all costs associated with the program, including materials, supplies, and activities.

What are the requirements to apply? Students are encouraged to have a minimum 3.0 GPA, complete an application, provide and show involvement in school and the community, and provide two recommendation letters. ACT/SAT test results are not required to participate in the program. Students applying to the summer program are not required to have taken a business course in high school.

How can students apply? Students must complete the online application for consideration for the program at www.tsu.edu/tmcfscholars . Recommendation letters and transcripts may be emailed to brian.armstrong@tsu.edu .

What is the application deadline? The application deadline is May 1, 2021. All supporting documents must be received by May 1.

What precautions will be taken due to COVID-19?

Since the program will be held virtually, students will not be permitted to reside on campus for the program (this was an option for students before the pandemic).
