DEAN'S WEEKLY UPDATE

January 13, 2005

Significant Activities, Requests, or Information

- Highlights

Nineteen law school faculty and staff members attended the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Law Schools in San Francisco January 5-9 2005. TMSL faculty and staff attended seminars in their disciplines and exchanged ideas with faculty and staff of some 200 law schools and legal organizations from the United States and abroad.

Lucinda Daniels '2000, Director of Career Services, has left the law school to become District Director for U. S. Rep. Alexander Green '74.

Clinician M. Nicole Morrison has returned to private law practice.

- Professor's Activities

Professor Walter Champion's latest Sports Law book was shipped by Aspen Publishers this week.

- Office of Career Services

This week, the Office of Career Services is preparing for the First-Year-Student Open House. During the Open House, the Office will introduce first year law students to services provided by the Office. Also, the Office is preparing for the Houston Bar Association's first year Mentoring Program.

NOTE: The Weekly Report is presented to the Provost each week to highlight the School of Law activities, events and accomplishments.
