DEAN'S WEEKLY UPDATE

July 27, 2005

Significant Activities, Requests, or Information

Office of Alumni Affairs

Last week, the Office of Alumni Affairs hosted its monthly dinner with the Dean at Nit Noi Thai Restaurant. The 10 attendees were selected graduates from the classes of 1995-2000. Also, in attendance were Dean Carrington, Kira Cross, project coordinator, and Prudence Smith, director of alumni affairs. The Office of Alumni Affairs will host a breakfast and reception for TMSL alumni at the National Bar Association in Orlando, Florida on Wednesday, August 3, 2005, at the JW Marriott, Grande Lakes.

Admissions/Financial Aid

The Office of Admissions and Financial Aid reported that 228 students have paid their second deposits as incoming students for the 2005-2006 academic school year. The Office continues to process financial aid applications and conduct counseling as needed.

Information Technology

The ImageNow training began on July 25, 2005. The training consists of software implementation, server/network connections, and comprehensive training with personnel who will utilize the system. The Office of Information Technology continues to develop new areas on the TMSL website as well as enhance existing areas.

Office of Academic Support

The Office of Academic Support visited the Bar examination site on July 26–28, 2005, to distribute care packages and present words of encouragement to Thurgood Marshall School of Law graduates.
