*Chairman
Board of Regents*

May 26, 2023

In a collegial manner, Dr. Lesia Crumpton-Young approached me, as Chairman of the Texas Southern University Board of Regents, with her retirement request.

The board agreed with the request and the mutually beneficial timing that will ultimately lead to the best outcome for Texas Southern University.

I would like to personally thank Dr. Young and her family for their service to this great institution. We wish them the very best.

Effective immediately, a board Transition Oversight Committee, chaired by Dr. Mary Sias, will be formed. All divisional vice presidents will continue to lead their TSU areas of daily responsibility, serve collectively in the executive function role during this interim period, and report to the board via the smaller oversight committee. A formal resolution ratifying the formation of this committee will be presented at the June 15th meeting of the TSU Board of Regents.

We look forward to the continued growth and success of Texas Southern University. As always, we are TSU Proud.
