

A passionate leader empowering alumni to make a meaningful impact at Texas Southern University, Corrie Williams serves as the president of the Texas Southern University National Alumni Association, Inc. Before becoming the national president, she served as the national VP of Membership, Metro Houston Chapter President, Dallas Chapter President, Membership Chair, and Convention Chair. Her mission as president is to elevate the legacy of the University through dedication to its purpose and make a meaningful impact by fostering connection, pride, and excellence in the TSU community. Corrie lives in Houston, TX and is the CEO of Corrieagraphed, LLC, a social media and branding firm that helps small businesses cultivate and market their brand.